

Free walking tour for foreign tourists!!

Check this out and join us!!

Saturday June 20th, 2009

Students of Professor Yoshihisa Matsumura's seminar at the Hannan University will plan the walking tours that you can never experience in an ordinary tour, and guide foreign tourists as volunteer activities. Joining our tour, you can find out new and cool attractiveness of Osaka, and experience "everyday life" or "festivities" of Osakans.

Walking tour's theme: Walk Osaka's Shrine and Artisans

Tour time: 1:00PM to 4:00PM (scheduled),

Saturday June 20th, 2009

Meeting place and time: Lobby of Hotel Chuo, at 12:45

Tour's outline: The industrial city of Osaka, once called Manchester of the Orient, possesses a number of highly skilled businesses as well as artisans who make handicrafts with traditional techniques that have survived to this day. In addition, June is a popular wedding month throughout Japan. This tour will visit Sumiyoshi Shrine in Osaka City, traditional house and museum of knives in Sakai City. If we are lucky, we could happen to meet traditional Shinto marriages at the Shrine. In Sakai, you can experience to make Japanese knives and to join tea ceremony.

Language: English & Chinese mandarin

Seats: 15 persons. We are to close the list when the number of participants reaches the quota.

Cost: Free, only actual expenses!! 600JP¥ for one-day free tram ticket.

How to participate the tour: Please full the application form below and hand it to the front reception staff of each hotel. About the meeting place, please ask to the reception staff.

Name:	Country:
Hotel's name and Room No.:	Total participants: persons